FATAL ISSUE TO LOCKJAW CASE

Farmer of Near Abbottstown Sustains Injury which Develops into Deadly Tetanus. Had Brother Die from the Same Cause.

Phares Hoke, of near Abbottstown, died about 10.30 o'clock Tuesday morning from lockjaw, developing from injuries sustained some time ago. He is a son of William Hoke, of Roundtown, and this is the second death to occur in the Hoke family from the dread disease, a brother dying the same way some time ago.

Mr. Hoke had one of his fingers crushed recently while operating some machinery. He paid no attention to the injury until it was so swollen and gave him such intense pain that he visited a York physician to receive treatment.

Last Thursday, however, tetanus developed, resulting in death. Dr. Bahn, of Spring Grove, a relative of Mr. Hoke, and Dr. Smyser, North York were called in by the family Tuesday morning but were unable to do a thing for the man who was dying. In addition to the wound on the finger, considered a minor injury by the physicians, there was a nail wound in one foot, so that it was not certain which wound caused lockjaw.

Mr. Hoke was forty-two years old and is survived by Mrs. Hoke, a number of young children, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hoke, Roundtown, and several brothers and sisters.

MRS. LEWIS GROFT

Mrs. Anna Groft, wife of Lewis A. Groft, died at her late home in Irish-town, Sunday, January 26, at 8 a. m. from a complication of diseases, after an illness of about a year. She was aged 75 years.

She is survived by her husband; five sons, Frank, of Mt. Misery; William, of Reading; Harry, of Seven Valleys; Carroll, of Irishtown, and Joseph, of McSherrystown; also two daughters, Mrs. Thomas Johnson, Hanover, and Mrs. Rosa Keagy, at home.

Funeral Wednesday, January 29, at 9 a. m., requiem mass in Conewago Chapel, Rev. Thomas C. Johnson, of Harrisburg, celebrant. Interment in the Chapel cemetery.

MRS. CHARLES OLINGER

Mrs. Charles Olinger died at her home in New Oxford Monday morning aged about 43 years.

She leaves her husband, her mother, Mrs. Anna Smith, of New Oxford, and several sisters.

Funeral at nine o'clock Thursday morning. Services in the Church of the Immaculate Conception, New Oxford. Interment at Conewago Chapel cemetery.

Delone, Esq.; vice president, C. N. Myers; secretary, J. B. Miller; treasurer, T. J. Little.

MORE W. M. TROUBLE

Forty Five Cars Ran away and Three Men were Hurt.

The Western Maryland Railroad is still pursued by wrecks. Three men were injured, Monday, at Cumberland, when 45 cars of a freight train, left stationary while a car was being cut out, ran away in the yards there. The cars narrowly missed striking a passenger train on the Cumberland & Connellsville division and finally collided with a Pullman car and locomotive. The men were painfully injured, and their escape from death was remarkable. The injured are: W. M. Beeler, engineer; Garret F. Rexwood, fireman, Dickerson Run, Pa.; A. Groves, brakeman, Thomas, W. ## GETTYSBURG IN THE LIMELIGHT

Publicity Received by the Town at the hands of Numerous Magazines and Newspapers. Anniversary and Lincoln Way.

Gettysburg is just at this time receiving more publicity than any other town its size in the country. Magazines and newspapers are filled with fiction and news pertaining to the town and its interests, many of which are of country-wide concern and importance. The Fiftieth Anniversary, the Lincoln Way and other things of similar character are subjects for editorial comment. The following are clippings from city papers of Tuesday and to-day:

Baltimore Sun: "It looks as if the South were a real part of the Union when General Longstreet's widow offers to raise in that section the money needed to relieve the financial embarrassment of General Sickles, if his Northern friends fail to come to his aid. Mrs. Longstreet's telegram comes from a warm Southern heart, and there is no doubt that an army of Southern sympathizers would charge as gallantly as General Sickles' assistance under her leadership as another army did against him under her husband at Gettysburg. The money will probably be raised in the North without trouble, but the incident is worth while. It shows that the sectional hate of Civil War times is almost as dead as the passions engendered in the War of the Roses."

Harrisburg Telegraph: "Governor Tener has a way of asserting himself at times that stamps him as more than a negatively good official. He is a man of action when action is required—a man who has the great good sense to say and do the right thing in the right place. "One instance of it was at the recent meeting of the Gettysburg Celebration Commission in Philadelphia, when he declared that Pennsylvania would welcome the Confederate veterans in any clothing they choose to wear. A Union veteran had made a motion that no uniforms or battle flags except those of the United States and the National Guard should be permitted at the reunion, and an ex-Confederate from Texas had taken vigorous exceptions. "The Governor might easily have refrained from participating in the controversy, but he rose to the emergency and rose promptly and tactfully. When he sat down the matter was not only settled, but everybody was laughing."

HAS NOT SIGNED

Eddie Plank's Ink Well May Be Dry Thinks The Press.

Says The Philadelphia Press: "Two veteran pitchers of the Mack corps—Charles Albert Bender and Edward Plank—are the only players belonging to the Athletics who have failed to affix their signatures to contracts for the 1913 season. Bender is in Atlanta, Ga., and will undoubtedly sign his contract when he returns. Plank is in his Gettysburg farm and it might be that he has not gone to town recently and the ink well is dry. "Plank hinted that he might retire after the 1912 season. However, he dislikes letter writing almost as much as he does life in a large city. So Mack is confident that the contract of his star southpaw will arrive before February 24, when the Athletics start for San Antonio. Plank finished second among the American League pitchers last season, with twenty-six games won and six lost. It is hardly likely that he would quit after making such a grand record."

FLAGMAN BLAMED

Jury Holds Durst Caused Collision that Killed Him.

The jury of inquest which probed the wreck on the Western Maryland railway, at Big Pool, returned a verdict Tuesday night laying the blame upon Clarence E. Durst, the flagman, who was killed in the caboose of the train that was standing on the track and into which plunged a train that was following. The jury held that it was Durst's duty to flag the approaching train when his own train stopped, and that he had failed to do so.

WEDDING BELLS RING MERRILY

Nuptial Events in Town and the County. Miss Ruth Hamilton and Paul W. Keppel Married at Pretty Home Wedding.

KEPPEL—HAMILTON

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Hamilton on Baltimore street was the scene of a pretty wedding at three o'clock this afternoon when their daughter, Miss Ruth Hamilton, and Paul W. Keppel, of Vandergrift, were married in the presence of a number of friends.

Miss Hamilton wore a gown of white crepe chausse trimmed with real lace. It was made with train and she wore a veil. Her shower bouquet was of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. After the ceremony Miss Hill played the Mendelssohn march, an informal reception following.

PERSONAL NOTES AND BRIEF ITEMS

Paragraphs of News Telling of the Happenings in and about Town. People Visiting here and those Sojourning Elsewhere.

Miss Genevieve Ramer has returned to her home on Baltimore street after a visit with friends in Taneytown.

Miss Joanna Boyle is visiting at the home of Mrs. Jerome C. Kelley in Harrisburg.

Miss Mabel Grenoble, of Keyser, W. Va., is spending some time with friends and relatives in town.

Miss Ethel Weaver, of Stevens street, is spending the week in York.

Edward Swisher has returned from a trip of several days to Lynchburg, Virginia.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Simon Frommeyer, of Norristown, a daughter.

The weather for Carnation Day was not very encouraging to those who wanted to wear the flower. Falling snow which required overcoats or raincoats as protection kept down the observance. The demand, however, in Gettysburg was greater than the supply and local florists had no difficulty selling the flowers.

Sleigh bells were heard on the streets during the morning. The snow had a poor foundation and sleighing for pleasure required no little imagination on the part of those who tried it.

The charge on which Mrs. Jacob Darr and Elmer Toddes pleaded guilty at January term of court was "furnishing liquor to a minor" not "selling liquor to minors" as stated in these columns yesterday.

The ice men continue to be worried not only here but in adjoining counties where the prospect for a harvest is regarded as very poor.

Carlisle is much excited about the charges of professionalism against James Thorpe the Indian athlete. The town has followed closely his successes and last year tendered a rousing reception to him upon his return from Stockholm.

Chambersburg Public Opinion jubilates over the announcement that a trolley line is to connect that place with Shippensburg and then asks about the probability for a similar connection with Gettysburg. The possibility of such a line being built seems more remote than ever.

TROLLEY ACTIVITY

Chambersburg and Shippensburg to be Connected this Year.

Plans have been perfected by which a trolley connection will be completed between Chambersburg and Shippensburg not later than the first of June. This connection will virtually complete the chain of trolley lines from Harrisburg to Frederick via Carlisle and Hagerstown, the link between Newville and Shippensburg now being under construction.

The Chambersburg & Shippensburg Railway Company has been organized and practically all the rights of way between the two terminals have been secured. All the stock has been subscribed by citizens of the two towns. Th company elected these officers: Thad M. Mahon, president; William H. Fisher, secretary of T. B. Wood's Sons Co., vice-president; C. Parker Miller, treasurer; Jacob G. Schaaf, secretary; J. A. Scrite, solicitor.

They purpose to lease the Red Bridge line from the Chambersburg, Greencastle and Waynesboro Trolley Company as far as Red Bridge, and then build a new line on to Shippensburg which will enter Shippensburg by way of King street, running the entire length of this street, giving it its first trolley service.

SPRAY FOR BLIGHT

Say Chestnut Tree Blight Can be Conquered by Spraying.

After months of experimentation and investigation, it has been discovered that chestnut trees can be protected from the ravages of the blight, or chestnut tree bark disease, by spraying. This will be welcome news to thousands of property owners throughout the state, especially to those who have chestnut trees on lawn; for when the blight was discovered it was thought the only way in which its spread might be checked was to cut down the tree and destroy the bark. Later, tree surgery was employed with great success, but now it is announced by the Penna. State Chestnut-tree Blight commission that the proper kind of spraying is also effective.

It is believed that several sprayings will be necessary each year to prevent the re-infection of the trees from the blight spores, but no more sprayings will be necessary than in case of apple trees and peach trees suffering from scab or scale.

THAT ICE STORY

Fruit Growers Interested in Story of Ice Packing for Trees.

Not one bud has appeared on the fruit trees packed with ice by Will F. Thomas on his orchard, near Hagerstown. Trees have budded on many other orchards in the vicinity, he says. Mr. Thomas, who is a lecturer under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce to spread information regarding Washington over the country and who formerly was chief of publicity of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition, defends his treatment of the trees as approved by serious scientific authority and as justified by expedients.

Prof. M. B. Waite, of the bureau of plant industry of the United States Department of Agriculture in Washington takes little stock in Mr. Thomas' plan. He said:

"I have heard about the newspaper account of ice being packed around the roots of trees in Washington county, Md. I do not think the Department of Agriculture has recommended it. If so, I do not know the particular man in the department who has made the recommendations. It certainly did not come from this office. I doubt very much whether any marked retarding effect on the buds could be produced by icing the roots."

MANY OFFER AID

Friends of Sickles Believe his Case will not be Tried.

Supporters of General Daniel E. Sickles, arrested and released under bail in connection with an alleged $23,000 shortage in funds of N.Y. State Monuments' Commission, said Tuesday that, in their opinion, the case would never be tried. So many offers of contributions to make up the deficit have already been received that they believe the shortage will be wiped out by popular subscription.

PLAN CHANGES IN CORPORATION ACT

Joint Legislative Committee Makes Report.

PROPOSE ANTHRACITE TAX

About a Score of Bills, Many Providing Additional Revenue, Also Presented.

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 29.—The joint committee of the senate and house, appointed to consider and report upon a revision of the corporation and revenue laws, presented its report to the legislature, together with about twenty bills, which the committee recommends be enacted into law.

The most important of the score of measures presented is a voluminous bill providing for the incorporation, regulation and dissolution of business corporations, to take the place of the present law founded upon the act of 1874 and its innumerable amendments and supplements.

The committee states in its report that "some of the most important changes in the law are the right to incorporate for more than one business, the requirement that 50 per cent of the capital stock shall be paid before the commencement of the business, the restriction of the right of a corporation to own its own shares, the prohibition upon one corporation owning more than 20 per cent of the capital stock of another corporation, a more complete enforcement of the constitutional provision that stock shall not be issued except for money, property or services, so as to prevent the issue of watered stock, liability of directors for false statements, and a more convenient method for enforcing liability for unpaid subscriptions for the benefit of creditors."

The committee also urges the enactment of a complete code for the regulation of foreign corporations, stating that it is the purpose of this act to put in force the best results of the experience of other states.

The committee also recommended a further law requiring investment brokers to be licensed by the banking commissioner as to approval of their method of doing business.

Among the other measures presented by the committee were the joint resolutions proposing amendments to the constitution so as to permit the classification of taxes for the purpose of laying graded or progressive taxes, and authorizing the state to issue bonds to the amount of $50,000,000 for road improvement.

The committee calls attention to the need of new institutions for the weak-minded, epileptic, tuberculous and insane, and particularly for wayward girls and women, and proposes that these should be supplied by taxes levied and collected by the state and distributed to counties and municipalities in accordance with their needs.

Another recommendation of the committee is the abolition of the present four mills tax on money at interest. The two exemptions are savings bank institutions and a life and trust company in Philadelphia.

The committee recommends that automobile license fees be increased upon business vehicles to $25 for those carrying five tons and less and $50 for all others, the revenues to go to road improvements.

A radical change is proposed in the method of taxing corporate loans, the report says. The present method lays the tax upon the holder of the securities, some of the holders thus escaping the tax levy because of their being non-residents. It is proposed that the tax be laid upon the corporation directly.

To meet the needs of the localities, it is proposed that the whole of the personal property tax instead of three-fourths, as at present, be returned to the counties.

The committee recommends the laying of a tax of 2 1/2 per cent on anthracite coal as prepared for market. One-half of this tax is to be retained by the state and the other half to be returned to the counties from which the coal comes. It is proposed the revenue from this source shall be applied to the improvement of state highways and to permanent local institutions.

The exemption from tax of charitable bequests to institutions of the state is recommended, in the belief that such exemptions would tend to secure such bequests which are now not made because the state takes 5 per cent for its own.

The committee recommends that the proposed federal income tax amendment be not approved by Pennsylvania.

FINISH WAR NOTE; PREPARE TO LEAVE

Envoys of Allies Divided Over Immediate Course.

London, Jan. 29.—With the presentation of their note to the Turkish delegation, the date for which has not yet been fixed, some of the Balkan delegates consider that their mission in London is ended.

The Greek premier, Eleutherios Venizelos, announced that he would leave before the end of the week, and the others within the next few days. The financial advisers and military officers attached to the Bulgarian delegation will start for home today.

Despite this the diplomats have not abandoned hope, and many still think the Balkan note is another attempt to exercise pressure on Turkey and that the allies really intend to await the answer of the new Turkish cabinet to the joint note of Europe.

The meeting of the allies lasted five hours and the discussion was animated. The delegates reviewed the whole situation and debated both sides of the question—the resumption of the war and the policy of delay.

The head of each delegation reported the conversation which he had with Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary, and reference was made again to the advice of the ambassadors to observe prudence and moderation. This greatly strengthened the arguments of that section favoring procrastination, their view being that after the powers' note to Turkey, which was in favor of the terms of the allies if the latter continued to follow Europe's advice, Europe would continue to give its support.

THE INCOME TAX PLAN IS READY

Democrats to Make It Part of Tariff Revision.

HULL WILL PREPARE BILL

Will Renew Excise Tax Plan If States Fail to Ratify Income Tax Amendment.

Washington, Jan. 29.—A feature of the tariff revision program of the extra session of congress may include the raising of $100,000,000 from an income tax, including the corporation tax, as part of the $300,000,000 basis of revenue from the tariff.

Representative Hull, of Tennessee, a Democratic member of the committee on ways and means, who has been active in income tax problems, plans to introduce a bill which would provide such a source of revenue.

This would be considered by the committee in connection with contemplated early ratification of the constitutional amendment to sanction income tax legislation. Of the necessary number of states required for ratification only two are lacking. Mr. Hull expects these to be drawn from New Jersey, Wyoming, New Mexico or Virginia, or from Florida, whose legislature, however, will not meet until April.

The Democratic majority of the committee favors an income tax, but in the event of failure of ratification will renew the excise tax plan as an extension of the present corporation tax law.

With only a few witnesses left, the ways and means committee of the house went on to clean up the hearings on "schedule K," wool and woollens, admittedly the storm center of the tariff question of the coming extra session of congress.

In the hearings so far it has been indicated that the Democrats intend to revise the wool tariff along the lines of the wool bills of 1911 and 1912, vetoed by President Taft.

This was the measure that was so bitterly denounced by William J. Bryan, who advocated free raw wool, and charged that Underwood in imposing a duty on the produce had "gone over to the protectionists."

Unless President Wilson should interfere the Underwood revision will be reintroduced in the new congress. With few, if any, changes. By the time the new congress is called in special session Bryan, as a member of the cabinet, will not be in a position to scold congress on the tariff or anything else without the support of his chief.

The Underwood bill provided for a duty of 20 per cent on wools, the rates on manufactures of wool averaging about 33 per cent, as compared with a duty of 35 per cent on the raw produce, and rates on manufactures running from 30 per cent to more than 100 per cent in the Aldrich-Payne law. Democrats privately say that their wool rates are protective, although such protectionists as Senator La Follette are not in accord with this view.

Mohair, used in the manufacture of clothing for felt, plushes and other purposes bids fair to be reduced from 40 per cent to 20 per cent ad valorem. Johnston Robertson, of Del Rio, Tex., an Angora goat producer, pleaded for a specific rate of 12 cents a pound equivalent to the present 40 per cent duty.

Captain Underwood pointed out that it was the raw material for great industries and, although now a luxury, it was every day becoming more of a necessity.

Representative Longworth, of Ohio, and Frank P. Bennett, of Boston, a Democrat, had a lively tilt. Mr. Longworth accused Mr. Bennett of evading issues, and Mr. Bennett retorted that "evidently Mr. Longworth's constituents had not thought much of his services relating to his defeat for the next congress."

MOROS ATTACK U. S. TROOPS

Americans Have Another Sharp Brush Near City of Jolo.

Manila, Jan. 29.—Another engagement between the American troops and the Moros was reported near the city of Jolo, and as the result of some spirited fighting the Americans lost one man killed and six wounded.

A large force of bolo men made a sudden onslaught and succeeded in rushing two troops of United States cavalry and a detachment of Philippine constabulary.

After a severe fight the Moros were beaten off, it is believed with heavy loss, but the number of their casualties has not yet been ascertained.

Twenty Hurt In Explosion.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 29.—The explosion of two casting furnaces at the plant of the Upson Nut company completely destroyed one building, seriously injured twenty or more men, some of whom may die, blew out window panes within a radius of half a mile and made it necessary to summon the entire downtown fire department.

Defaulter Surrenders.

Newark, N. J., Jan. 29.—A. L. Beavers, defaulting cashier of the First National bank of High Bridge, N. J., who disappeared recently after confessing to a shortage of $50,000, surrendered himself to federal authorities at Jersey City and was brought back to Newark for arraignment.

20 YEARS FOR DYNAMITER

Man Who Tried to Blow Up Los Angeles Jokes as Judge Sentences Him.

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 29.—Carl Rie delbach, of Salt Lake City, the man who terrorized the central police station Nov. 19 last with an infernal machine, was sentenced to twenty years in the penitentiary.

The sentence was imposed after Rie delbach had declared that he believed dynamite was a good means of right ing some social wrongs.

"If I thought your allegiance was an unalterable principle, I would sentence you to life imprisonment," said the court, "but I think twenty years in the penitentiary will give you plenty of time to change your mind."

Riedelbach's good humor withstood even this shock, and he smiled and winked at the detectives who ended his short tenure as sole master of the police station by knocking him uncon scious and demolishing his infernal machine after the fuse had been lighted.

RESUME WAR ON SHOP WINDOWS

Many Suffragettes Arrested in London and Dublin.

TRY TO DUCK 4 IN FOUNTAIN

Militant Women Open Their War by Series of Attacks and Police Are Kept Busy.

London, Jan. 29.—As a protest against the withdrawal of the franchise bill by the government the suffragettes resumed their militant tactics.

While a deputation, which the chancellor of the exchequer, David Lloyd George, had refused to see, was trying to force its way into parliament against an overwhelming force of police, and members were being placed under arrest for resisting the officers, other bands of women went through Whitehall breaking windows of the government offices, and through Cockspur street, where the great plate glass windows in the establishments of shipping companies were ruthlessly smashed.

The women also visited Oxford, Regent and other streets in the shopping district, where similar damage was done. Later mail boxes were attacked quantities of liquid being poured into them.

In the outlying suburbs, too, the suffragettes took steps to bring the cause before the public by damaging property.

Twenty-one women were arrested in the vicinity of the parliament building but were released on bail after the house rush. Most of the police stations had one or more prisoners charged with destroying property.

The demonstration in Whitehall was not so large as some of those previously held, the force of police and a drenching rain militating against any great turn out. The wildest excitement prevailed, however, and besides protecting property and arresting women engaged in window smashing or who refused to move on when ordered, the police had the greatest difficulty in protecting the women from an unruly crowd of youths who gathered and hustled every woman wearing the suffragette colors.

In several cases the women were roughly handled. An attempt to duck four of them in the fountain in Trafalgar square was frustrated by a police posse which had to ride through the crowd.

The entire deputation of twenty-one women who attempted to make their way into the house of commons to interview Chancellor Lloyd George was arrested. The prisoners included Mrs. Drummond and Miss Sylvia Pankhurst who marched in front. Before starting on their mission the delegates listened to addresses by Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst and other leaders.

Mrs. Pankhurst said that the withdrawal of the franchise bill, including the speaker's ruling, was a plot decided on long ago, and Premier Asquith was aware of it.

"The answer to this treachery," she declared, "is militancy."

Three Dundee suffragettes, Mrs. Hop kins, Mrs. Cousins and Mrs. Connerly who were arrested on the charge of breaking fifteen panes of glass in the windows of Dundee Castle, were sentenced by the police magistrate to a month's hard labor each.

JOHN D. OFFERS $100,000

Makes Proposition to American Baptist Home Society.

New York, Jan. 29.—John D. Rockefeller sent word to the American Baptist Home society that he would give $100,000 to a $3,000,000 campaign committee, if by April 1 next certain conditions were complied with.

A reply was sent that every possible effort would be made to meet the conditions.

Mr. Rockefeller, cognizant with the campaign and its details, and wishing to induce others to give, made his conditions as follows:

"If by April 1 Baptist churches and individuals have given $125,000 more than they gave to the same date last year there will come from Mr. Rockefeller $50,000. If by that rate the same sources shall give another $125,000 the same strong box will bring forth another $50,000."

The Baptists have three large societies: The Home Mission, with headquarters in New York; the Foreign, in Boston, and the Publication, in Philadelphia. They have also three smaller societies. All six share in the Rockefeller offer.

FLIBUSTER HALTS TAFT NOMINATIONS

Democrats in Senate Prevent Any Confirmations.

Washington, Jan. 29.—The fight over President Taft's appointments started in earnest in the senate. For six hours Republicans and Democrats battled behind closed doors, the former demanding action on the nominations and the latter filibustering to prevent it.

Democratic senators consistently refused to take up the nominations in regular order and professed themselves willing to take the blame for the delay in action on the 1490 or more pending appointments.

The opening of the Republican fight followed a caucus early in the day, at which it was determined to force the issue against the Democrats and compel them either to yield in their opposition or openly to adopt methods of delay and obstruction.

As a result of the development of the filibuster, intimations came from Republican senators that the fight undoubtedly would extend into President-elect Wilson's administration, and be reflected in the senate's action upon many of his appointments.

Republicans remained in the senate chamber throughout the day, sending the sergeant-at-arms after missing Democrats when the latter attempted to break a quorum.

The Republicans in caucus declined to consider the proposal made by the Democratic caucus for a joint committee of ten to go over the nominations and select some for confirmation.

ATTENTION MOTHERS!

If You Have or Know of a Delicate Child Read This Letter.

"My little daughter Louise, age 9 years, has always been delicate, anaemic, had no appetite and seemed listless, and we could not seem to find anything that would help her, until we were advised to give her Vinol. She started taking it six weeks ago and inside of two weeks she showed a marked improvement both in appetite, vim and looks. Being so well pleased with the results, I continued giving it to her, and words fail to express my gratitude, and faith in Vinol. both as a blood maker and body builder. As my child was an anaemic for so long makes the reason all the stronger for me to recommend it to others in similar condition." Geo. E. Munro, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Vinol restores health and strength in conditions like this because in a natural manner, it tones up the digestive organs, enriches the blood and strengthens every organ of the body.

Every bottle of Vinol is guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded. People's Drug Store, Baltimore street, Gettysburg, Pa.

This remedy works wonders, eases the pain, lifts out the corn brims comfort and sound feet at once. You buy a 25c bottle of Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, recommended by druggists and People's Drug Store.
